* Sec. 51. AS 12.55.025(a) is amended to read:

(a) When imposing a sentence for conviction of a felony offense or a sentence of imprisonment exceeding 90 days or upon a conviction of a violation of AS 04, a regulation adopted under AS 04, or an ordinance adopted in conformity with AS 04.21.010, the court shall prepare, as a part of the record, a sentencing report that includes the following:

1. A verbatim record of the sentencing hearing and any other in-court sentencing procedures;
2. Findings on material issues of fact and on factual questions required to be determined as a prerequisite to the selection of the sentence imposed;
3. A clear statement of the terms of the sentence imposed; if a term of imprisonment is imposed, the statement must include
   (A) the approximate minimum term the defendant is expected to serve before being released or placed on mandatory parole if the defendant is eligible for and does not forfeit good conduct deductions under AS 33.20.010; and
   (B) if applicable, the approximate minimum term of imprisonment the defendant must serve before becoming eligible for release on discretionary or administrative parole;
4. Any recommendations as to the place of confinement or the manner of treatment; and
5. In the case of a conviction for a felony offense, information assessing
   (A) the financial, emotional, and medical effects of the offense on the victim;
   (B) the need of the victim for restitution; and

* Sec. 52. AS 12.55.025(c) is amended to read:

(c) Except as provided in (d) of this section, when a defendant is sentenced to imprisonment, the term of confinement commences on the date of imposition of sentence unless the court specifically provides that the defendant must report to serve the sentence on another date. If the court provides another date to begin the term of confinement, the court shall provide the defendant with written notice of the date,
Defendant shall receive credit for time spent in custody pending trial, sentencing, or appeal, if the detention was in connection with the offense for which sentence was imposed \textbf{including a technical violation of probation as provided in AS 12.55.110}. A defendant may not receive credit for more than the actual time spent in custody pending trial, sentencing, or appeal. The time during which a defendant is voluntarily absent from official detention after the defendant has been sentenced may not be credited toward service of the sentence.

Sec. 53. AS 12.55.027(d) is amended to read:

\begin{enumerate}
\item A court may grant credit of \textbf{not more than 120 days} against the total term of imprisonment for a crime for time spent under electronic monitoring that complies with AS 33.30.011(10), if the person has not committed a criminal offense while under electronic monitoring and the court imposes restrictions on the person's freedom of movement and behavior while under the electronic monitoring program, including requiring the person to be confined to a residence except for a
\begin{enumerate}
\item court appearance;
\item meeting with counsel; or \item period during which the person is at a location ordered by the court for the purposes of employment, attending educational or vocational training, performing community volunteer work, or attending a rehabilitative activity or medical appointment.
\end{enumerate}
\end{enumerate}

Sec. 54. AS 12.55.051(a) is amended to read:

\begin{enumerate}
\item If the defendant defaults in the payment of a fine or any installment or of restitution or any installment, the court may order the defendant to show cause why the defendant should not be sentenced to imprisonment for nonpayment and, if the payment was made a condition of the defendant's probation, may revoke the probation of the defendant \textbf{subject to the limits set out in AS 12.55.110}. In a contempt or probation revocation proceeding brought as a result of failure to pay a fine or restitution, it is an affirmative defense that the defendant was unable to pay despite having made continuing good faith efforts to pay the fine or restitution. If the court finds that the defendant was unable to pay despite having made continuing good faith efforts, the defendant may not be imprisoned solely because of the inability to pay. If the court does not find that the default was attributable to the defendant's inability to pay despite having made continuing good faith efforts to pay the fine or restitution, the court may order the defendant imprisoned subject to the limits set out in AS 12.55.110 [UNTIL THE ORDER OF THE COURT IS SATISFIED]. A term of imprisonment imposed under this section may not exceed one day for each $50 of the unpaid portion of the fine or restitution or one year, whichever is shorter. Credit shall be given toward satisfaction of the order of the court for every day a person is incarcerated for nonpayment of a fine or restitution.

* Sec. 55. AS 12.55.051 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

(k) The Department of Law may garnish a permanent fund dividend under AS 43.23.065 or garnish other income of a defendant as allowed by state law to collect restitution ordered by the court.

* Sec. 56. AS 12.55.055(a) is amended to read:

(a) The court may order a defendant convicted of an offense under AS 04, AS 28, or AS 47.12.030, that specifically provides for community work as authorized punishment to perform community work as a condition of probation, [A SUSPENDED SENTENCE,] or may order community work in a suspended imposition of sentence, [OR] in addition to any fine or restitution ordered. [IF THE DEFENDANT IS SENTENCED TO IMPRISONMENT, THE COURT MAY RECOMMEND TO THE DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS THAT THE DEFENDANT PERFORM COMMUNITY WORK.]

* Sec. 57. AS 12.55.055(c) is amended to read:

(c) The court may offer a defendant convicted of an offense the option of performing community work in lieu of a fine, surcharge, or portion of a fine or surcharge if the court finds the defendant is unable to pay the fine. The value of community work in lieu of a fine is the state's minimum wage for each [$3 PER] hour.

* Sec. 58. AS 12.55.055 is amended by adding new subsections to read:

(g) The court may not
(1) offer a defendant convicted of an offense the option of serving jail time in lieu of performing uncompleted community work previously ordered by the court; or

(2) convert uncompleted community work hours into a sentence of imprisonment.

(h) If a court orders community work as part of the defendant's sentence under this section, the court shall provide notice to the defendant at sentencing and include as a provision of the judgment that if the defendant fails to provide proof of community work within 20 days after the date set by the court, the court shall convert those community work hours to a fine equal to the number of uncompleted work hours multiplied by the state's minimum hourly wage and issue a judgment against the defendant for that amount.

* Sec. 59. AS 12.55 is amended by adding a new section to read:

Sec. 12.55.078. Suspending entry of judgment. (a) Except as provided in (g) of this section, if a person is found guilty or pleads guilty to a crime, the court may, with the consent of the defendant and the prosecution and without imposing or entering a judgment of guilt, defer further proceedings and place the person on probation.

(b) The court shall impose conditions of probation for a person on probation as provided in (a) of this section, which may include that the person

(1) abide by all local, state, and federal laws;

(2) not leave the state without prior consent of the court;

(3) pay restitution as ordered by the court; and

(4) obey any other conditions of probation set by the court.

(c) At any time during the probationary term of the person released on probation, a probation officer may, without warrant or other process, rearrest the person so placed in the officer's care and bring the person before the court, or the court may, in its discretion, issue a warrant for the rearrest of the person. The court may revoke and terminate the probation if the court finds that the person placed upon probation is

(1) violating the conditions of probation;
(2) engaging in criminal practices; or

(3) violating an order of the court to participate in or comply with the treatment plan of a rehabilitation program under AS 12.55.015(a)(10).

(d) If the court finds that the person has successfully completed probation, the court shall, at the end of the probationary period set by the court, or at any time after the expiration of one year from the date of the original probation, discharge the person and dismiss the proceedings against the person.

(e) If the court finds that the person has violated the conditions of probation ordered by the court, the court may revoke and terminate the person's probation, enter judgment on the person's previous plea or finding of guilt, and pronounce sentence at any time within the maximum probation period authorized by this section.

(f) The court may not suspend imposing or entering the judgment and defer prosecution under this section of a person who

(2) uses a firearm in the commission of the offense for which the person is convicted;

(3) has previously been granted a suspension of judgment under this section or a similar statute in another jurisdiction, unless the court enters written findings that by clear and convincing evidence the person's prospects for rehabilitation are high and suspending judgment under this section adequately protects the victim of the offense, if any, and the community;

(4) is convicted of a violation of AS 11.41.230 - 11.41.250 or a felony and the person has one or more prior convictions for a misdemeanor violation of AS 11.41 or for a felony or for a violation of a law in this or another jurisdiction having similar elements to an offense defined as a misdemeanor in AS 11.41 or as a felony in this state; for the purposes of this paragraph, a person shall be considered to have a prior conviction even if

(A) the charges were dismissed under this section;

(B) the conviction has been set aside under AS 12.55.085; or
(C) the charge or conviction was dismissed or set aside under an equivalent provision of the laws of another jurisdiction.

* Sec. 60. AS 12.55.090(b) is amended to read:
   (b) Except as otherwise provided in (f) of this section, the court may revoke or modify any condition of probation, [OR MAY] change the period of probation, or terminate probation and discharge the defendant from probation.

* Sec. 61. AS 12.55.090(c) is amended to read:
   (c) The period of probation, together with any extension, may not exceed
      (1) five [25] years for an unclassified felony under AS 11 or a felony sex offense; [OR]
      (2) three [10] years for a felony [ANY OTHER] offense not listed in (1) of this subsection;
      (3) two years for a misdemeanor offense
         (A) involving domestic violence;
         (B) under AS 28.35.030 or 28.35.032, if the person has previously been convicted of an offense under AS 28.35.030 or 28.35.032, or a similar law or ordinance of this or another jurisdiction; or
         (4) one year for an offense not listed in (1) - (3) of this subsection.

* Sec. 62. AS 12.55.090(f) is amended to read:
   (f) Unless the defendant and the prosecuting authority agree at the probation revocation proceeding or other proceeding related to a probation violation, the person qualifies for a reduction under AS 33.05.025 or a probation officer recommends to the court that probation be terminated and the defendant be discharged from probation under (g) of this section or AS 33.05.040, the court may not reduce the specific period of probation[,] or the specific term of suspended incarceration except by the amount of incarceration imposed for a probation violation, if
      (1) the sentence was imposed in accordance with a plea agreement under Rule 11, Alaska Rules of Criminal Procedure; and
      (2) the agreement required a specific period of probation or a specific term of suspended incarceration.
Sec. 63. AS 12.55.090 is amended by adding new subsections to read:

(g) A probation officer shall recommend to the court that probation be terminated and a defendant be discharged from probation if the defendant

(1) has completed at least one year on probation;

(2) has completed all treatment programs required as a condition of probation; and

(3) is currently in compliance with all conditions of probation.

(h) Before a court may reduce the period of probation or terminate probation and discharge the defendant before the period of probation for the offense has been completed, the court shall allow victims to comment in writing to the court or allow a victim to give sworn testimony or make an unsworn oral presentation at a hearing held to determine whether to reduce the period of probation or terminate probation and discharge the defendant. If there are numerous victims, the court may limit the number of victims who may give sworn testimony or make an unsworn oral presentation at the hearing.

(i) If a probation officer recommends to the court that probation be terminated and a defendant be discharged from probation under (g) of this section, the court shall, if feasible, send a copy of the motion to the Department of Corrections sufficiently in advance of any scheduled hearing to enable the Department of Corrections to notify the victim of that crime. If the victim has earlier requested to be notified, the Department of Corrections shall send the victim notice of the recommendation under (g) of this section and inform the victim of the victim's rights under this section, the deadline for receipt of written comments, the hearing date, and the court's address.

(j) The court shall provide copies of the victim's written comments to the prosecuting attorney, the defendant, and the defendant's attorney.

(k) In deciding whether to reduce a period of probation or terminate probation and discharge the defendant from probation, the court shall consider the victim's comments, testimony, or unsworn oral presentation, when relevant, and any response by the prosecuting attorney and defendant.

(l) If a victim desires notice under this section, the victim shall maintain a current, valid mailing address on file with the commissioner of corrections. The commissioner shall send the notice to the victim's last known address. The victim's address may not be disclosed to the defendant or the defendant's attorney.

Sec. 64. AS 12.55.100(a) is amended to read:

(a) While on probation and among the conditions of probation, the defendant shall be required to obey all state, federal, and local laws or ordinances, and any court orders applicable to the probationer; and

(1) may be required

(A) [(1)] to pay a fine in one or several sums;

(B) [(2)] to make restitution or reparation to aggrieved parties for actual damages or loss caused by the crime for which conviction was had, including compensation to a victim that is a nonprofit organization for the value of labor or goods provided by volunteers if the labor or goods were necessary to alleviate or mitigate the effects of the defendant's crime; when determining the amount of actual damages or loss under this paragraph, the court shall value property as the market value of the property at the time and place of the crime or, if the market value cannot reasonably be ascertained, the cost of the replacement of the property within a reasonable time after the crime;

(C) [(3)] to provide for the support of any persons for whose support the defendant is legally responsible;

(D) [(4)] to perform community work in accordance with AS 12.55.055;

(E) [(5)] to participate in or comply with the treatment plan of an inpatient or outpatient rehabilitation program specified by either the court or the defendant's probation officer that is related to the defendant's offense or to the defendant's rehabilitation;

(F) [(6)] to satisfy the screening, evaluation, referral, and program requirements of an agency authorized by the court to make referrals for rehabilitative treatment or to provide rehabilitative treatment;

(G) [AND (7)] to comply with a program established under AS 47.38.020; and
(H) to comply with the sanctions imposed by the defendant's probation officer under AS 33.05.020(g).

* Sec. 65. AS 12.55.100(c) is amended to read:

(c) A program of inpatient treatment may be required by the authorized agency under (a)(2)(F) [(a)(6)] of this section only if authorized in the judgment, and may not exceed the maximum term of inpatient treatment specified in the judgment. A person who has been referred for inpatient treatment may make a written request to the sentencing court asking the court to review the referral. The request for review shall be made within seven days after the agency's referral, and shall specifically set out the grounds on which the request for review is based. The court may order a hearing on the request for review.

* Sec. 66. AS 12.55.110 is amended by adding new subsections to read:

(c) If a defendant is serving a period of probation for an offense, the court may find that the defendant has committed a technical violation of probation. If the court finds that a defendant has committed a technical violation of probation that does not include absconding, the court may reinstate the term of probation with appropriate conditions or impose a sentence of imprisonment of not more than

(1) three days for the first petition to revoke probation filed with the court;

(2) five days for the second petition to revoke probation filed with the court;

(3) 10 days for the third petition to revoke probation filed with the court; or

(4) up to the remainder of the suspended portion of the sentence for a fourth or subsequent petition to revoke probation.

(d) If the court revokes a person's probation for absconding, the court may impose a period of imprisonment not to exceed 30 days.

(e) The limits set out in this section on the length of imprisonment for a revocation do not apply if a probationer is enrolled in a program established under AS 33.05.020(f).

(f) If the defendant is ordered to complete treatment under
AS 12.55.100(a)(2)(E) and does not comply with the court's order, the court may order the defendant to show cause why the defendant should not be sentenced to imprisonment for noncompletion of treatment and may revoke the suspended sentence subject to the limits established in this section. In a contempt or probation revocation proceeding brought as a result of failure to complete treatment, it is an affirmative defense that the defendant was unable to afford the cost of treatment or secure a place in a free treatment program, despite having made continuing good faith efforts. If the court finds that the defendant was unable to complete treatment despite having made continuing good faith efforts, the defendant may not be imprisoned solely because of an inability to pay. If the court does not find that the noncompletion of treatment was attributable to the defendant's inability to pay, the court may order the defendant imprisoned subject to the limits established in this section.

(g) In this section,

(1) "absconding" means failing to report within five working days after release from custody under AS 33.20.030 or failing to report to a probation officer within 30 days after release from custody as directed by the court or probation officer;

(2) "technical violation" means a violation of the conditions of probation that does not result from

(A) an arrest for a new criminal offense; or

(B) failing to complete sex offender treatment.

    (f) The court may terminate a revocation for an offense described in (a)(5) or (8) of this section if

    (1) either

        (A) the person's license, privilege to drive, or privilege to obtain a license has been revoked for the minimum periods set out in (c) of this section; or

        (B) the person

            (i) has successfully completed a court-ordered treatment program under AS 28.35.028;

            (ii) has not been convicted of a violation of AS 28.35.030 or 28.35.032, or a similar law or ordinance of this or another jurisdiction since completing the program; and

            (iii) has been granted limited license privileges under AS 28.15.201(g) and has successfully driven for three years under that limited license without having the limited license privileges revoked; and

    (2) the person complies with the provisions of AS 28.15.211(d) and (e).

* Sec. 76. AS 28.15.201 is amended by adding new subsections to read:

    (g) Notwithstanding (d) of this section, a court revoking a driver's license, privilege to drive, or privilege to obtain a license under AS 28.15.181(c), or the department when revoking a driver's license, privilege to drive, or privilege to obtain a license under AS 28.15.165(c), may grant limited license privileges if

    (1) the revocation was for a felony conviction under AS 28.35.030;
(2) the person has successfully participated for at least six months in, or has successfully completed, a court-ordered treatment program under AS 28.35.028;

(3) the person provides proof of insurance as required by AS 28.20.230 and 28.20.240;

(4) the person is required to use an ignition interlock device during the period of the limited license whenever the person operates a motor vehicle in a community not included in the list published by the department under AS 28.22.011(b) and, when applicable,

   (A) the person provides proof of installation of the ignition interlock device on every vehicle the person operates;

   (B) the person signs an affidavit acknowledging that

   (i) operation by the person of a vehicle that is not equipped with an ignition interlock device is subject to penalties for driving with a revoked license;

   (ii) circumventing or tampering with the ignition interlock device is a class A misdemeanor; and

   (iii) the person is required to maintain the ignition interlock device throughout the period of the limited license, to keep up-to-date records in each vehicle showing that any required service and calibration is current, and to produce those records immediately on request;

(5) the person is enrolled in and is in compliance with or has successfully completed the alcoholism screening, evaluation, referral, and program requirements of the Department of Health and Social Services under AS 28.35.030(h);

(6) the person has not previously been granted a limited license under this subsection and had the license revoked under (h) of this section;

(7) the person is participating in a program established under AS 47.38.020 for a minimum of 120 days from the date a limited license is granted under this section.

(h) The court or the department may immediately revoke a limited license granted under (g) of this section if the person is convicted of a violation of AS 28.35.030 or 28.35.032 or a similar law or ordinance of this or another jurisdiction or if the person is not in compliance with a court-ordered treatment program under AS 28.35.028.

* Sec. 77. AS 28.15.291(a) is repealed and reenacted to read:

   (a) A person commits the crime of driving while license canceled, suspended, revoked, or in violation of a limitation if the person drives

      (1) a motor vehicle on a highway or vehicular way or area at a time when that person's driver's license, privilege to drive, or privilege to obtain a license has been canceled, suspended, or revoked under circumstances described in AS 28.15.181(c) or a similar law in another jurisdiction;

      (2) a motor vehicle on a highway or vehicular way or area at a time when that person's driver's license, privilege to drive, or privilege to obtain a license has been canceled, suspended, or revoked under circumstances other than those described in (1) of this subsection; or

      (3) in violation of a limitation placed on that person's license or privilege to drive in this or another jurisdiction.

* Sec. 78. AS 28.15.291(b) is repealed and reenacted to read:

   (b) Driving while license canceled, suspended, revoked, or in violation of a limitation is

      (1) a class A misdemeanor if the person violates (a)(1) of this section; upon conviction the court shall impose a minimum sentence of imprisonment of not less than 10 days if the person has been previously convicted under (a)(1) of this section or a similar law in another jurisdiction;

      (2) an infraction if the person violates (a)(2) or (3) of this section.

* Sec. 79. AS 28.35.028(b) is amended to read:

   (b) Once the court elects to proceed under this section, the defendant shall enter a no contest or guilty plea to the offense or shall admit to a probation violation, as appropriate. The state and the defendant may enter into a plea agreement to determine the offense or offenses to which the defendant is required to plead. If the court accepts the agreement, the court shall enforce the terms of the agreement. The court shall enter a judgment of conviction for the offense or offenses for which the defendant has pleaded or an order finding that the defendant has violated probation, as appropriate. A judgment of conviction or an order finding a probation violation must set a schedule for payment of restitution owed by the defendant. In a judgment of conviction and on probation conditions that the court considers appropriate, the court may withhold pronouncement of a period of imprisonment or a fine to provide an incentive for the defendant to complete recommended treatment successfully.
Imprisonment or a fine imposed by a court shall comply with AS 12.55 or any mandatory minimum or other sentencing provision applicable to the offense.
However, notwithstanding Rule 35, Alaska Rules of Criminal Procedure, and any other provision of law, the court, at any time after the period when a reduction of sentence is normally available, may consider and reduce the defendant's sentence, including imprisonment, fine, or license revocation, based on the defendant's compliance with the treatment plan; when reducing a sentence, the court (1) may not reduce the sentence below the mandatory minimum sentence for the offense unless the court finds that the defendant has successfully complied with and completed the treatment plan and that the treatment plan approximated the severity of the minimum period of imprisonment, and (2) may consider the defendant's compliance with the treatment plan as a mitigating factor allowing a reduction of a sentence under AS 12.55.155(a). A court entering an order finding the defendant has violated probation may withhold pronouncement of disposition to provide an incentive for the defendant to complete the recommended treatment successfully.

* Sec. 80. AS 28.35.030(k) is amended to read:

(k) Imprisonment required under (b)(1)(A) of this section shall be served [AT A COMMUNITY RESIDENTIAL CENTER OR] by electronic monitoring at a

* Sec. 86. AS 29.25.070 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

    (g) If a municipality prescribes a penalty for a violation of a municipal ordinance, including a violation under (a) of this section, and there is a comparable state offense under AS 11 with elements that are similar to the municipal ordinance, the municipality may not impose a greater punishment than that imposed for a violation of the state law.         (2) policies and procedures that ensure

            (A) a process for responding to negative behavior that includes a review of previous violations and sanctions;

            (B) that enhanced sanctions for certain negative conduct are approved by the commissioner or the commissioner's designee; and

            (C) that appropriate due process protections are included in the process, including notice of negative behavior, an opportunity to dispute the accusation and the sanction, and an opportunity to request a review of the accusation and the sanction.

Chapter 07. Pretrial Services Program.

Sec. 33.07.010. Pretrial services program; establishment. The commissioner shall establish and administer a pretrial services program that provides a pretrial risk assessment for all defendants, recommendations to the court concerning pretrial release decisions, and supervision of defendants released while awaiting trial as ordered by the court.

Sec. 33.07.020. Duties of commissioner; pretrial services. The commissioner shall

(1) appoint and make available to the superior court and district court qualified pretrial services officers;

(2) fix pretrial services officers' salaries;

(3) assign pretrial services officers to the various judicial districts;

(4) provide for the necessary training, expenses, including clerical services, and travel of pretrial services officers;

(5) approve a risk assessment instrument that is objective, standardized, developed based on analysis of empirical data and risk factors relevant to pretrial failure, that evaluates the likelihood of failure to appear in court and the likelihood of rearrest during the pretrial period, and that is validated on the state's pretrial population; and

(6) adopt regulations in consultation with the Department of Law, the public defender, the Department of Public Safety, and the Alaska Court System, consistent with this chapter and as necessary to implement the program; the regulations must include pretrial release decision-making process guidelines for pretrial services officers in making a recommendation to the court concerning a pretrial release decision, including guidelines for pretrial diversion recommendations.

Sec. 33.07.030. Duties of pretrial services officers. (a) Pretrial services officers shall, in advance of a first appearance before a judicial officer under AS 12.30, conduct a pretrial risk assessment on the defendant using an instrument approved by the commissioner for the purpose of making a recommendation to the court concerning an appropriate pretrial release decision and conditions of release. In conducting a pretrial risk assessment and making a recommendation to the court, the department shall follow the decision-making process established by regulation under this chapter. The pretrial risk assessment shall be completed and presented to the court in a pretrial release report that contains a risk assessment rating of low, moderate, or high and a recommendation regarding release and release conditions before the defendant's first appearance before a judicial officer.

(b) A pretrial services officer shall make a recommendation under (a) of this section for pretrial release to the court based on factors that include the results of a pretrial risk assessment, the offense charged, the least restrictive condition, and conditions that will reasonably ensure the appearance of the person in court and the safety of the victim, other persons, and the community. The recommendation must take into account

(1) the level of risk of a defendant;
(2) the appropriateness for release on the defendant's own recognizance or on the execution of an unsecured appearance bond, unsecured performance bond, or both; and
(3) nonmonetary release conditions permitted under AS 12.30.011, 12.30.016, 12.30.021, and 12.30.027 for defendants who are recommended for release.

(c) A pretrial services officer shall recommend for release on personal recognizance, upon execution of an unsecured appearance bond, upon execution of an unsecured performance bond, or to a pretrial diversion program, with nonmonetary conditions as appropriate, a defendant charged with

(1) a misdemeanor, unless that misdemeanor is

(A) a crime involving domestic violence, as defined in AS 18.66.990;
(B) a crime against the person under AS 11.41;
(C) an offense under AS 11.56.730;

(2) a class C felony unless that felony is

(A) a crime involving domestic violence, as defined in AS 18.66.990;
(B) a crime against the person under AS 11.41;
(C) an offense under AS 11.56.730;

(3) an offense under AS 28.35.030 or 28.35.032, if the defendant has been assessed as being low or moderate risk on the pretrial risk assessment;

(4) an offense for which no finding has been made under (d) of this section that is

(A) an offense under AS 28.35.030 or 28.35.032, and the defendant has been assessed as being high risk on the pretrial risk assessment;
(B) an offense under AS 11.56.730 or 11.56.757, and the defendant has been assessed as being low to moderate risk on the pretrial risk assessment;
(C) any other offense, and the defendant has been assessed as being low risk on the pretrial risk assessment.

(d) For an offense under (c)(4) of this section, if the pretrial services officer finds substantial evidence that no nonmonetary conditions of release in combination with a personal recognizance release or unsecured bond can reasonably ensure the appearance of the person in court and the safety of the victim, other persons, and the community, the pretrial services officer may recommend to the court more restrictive release conditions than otherwise provided for under (c) of this section.

(e) Pretrial services officers shall supervise defendants released during the pretrial period and prioritize supervision of defendants accused of serious charges or who are assessed as moderate or high risk on the pretrial risk assessment. Pretrial services officers shall impose the least restrictive level of supervision that will reasonably ensure the appearance of the person in court and the safety of the victim and the community.

(f) A pretrial services officer may

(1) recommend pretrial diversion to the court before adjudication;
(2) arrest a defendant who has been released pretrial without a warrant if the officer has reason to believe the defendant has committed an offense under AS 11.56.730 or 11.56.757 or has violated the defendant's release conditions;
(3) refer interested defendants for substance abuse screening, assessment, and treatment on a voluntary basis; and
(4) coordinate with community-based organizations and tribal courts and councils to develop and expand pretrial diversion options.

Sec. 33.07.040. Pretrial services officers as officers of court. (a) All pretrial services officers shall be available to the superior and district courts and shall be officers of the court.

(b) The appointment of a pretrial services officer shall be entered on the journal of the court in the judicial district where the pretrial services officer is assigned, and one copy of the journal entry shall be sent to the administrative director of the Alaska Court System.

expected date of the release, the geographic area in which the prisoner will reside, and any other information concerning conditions of parole that may affect the victim. The victim shall also be informed of any changes in the conditions of parole that may affect the victim. The board shall send the notice required to the last known address of

The decision of a member of the board under this section is the decision of the board. A prisoner or parolee aggrieved by a decision of a member of the board acting for the board under this subsection may apply to the board under AS 33.16.160 for a change in the conditions of administrative or mandatory parole.

* Sec. 112. AS 33.16.150(f) is amended to read:

(f) In addition to other conditions of parole imposed under this section, the board may impose as a condition of special medical, administrative, discretionary, or mandatory parole for a prisoner serving a term for a crime involving domestic violence (1) any of the terms of protective orders under AS 18.66.100(c)(1) - (7); (2) a requirement that, at the prisoner's expense, the prisoner participate in and complete, to the satisfaction of the board, a program for the rehabilitation of perpetrators of domestic violence that meets the standards set by, and that is approved by, the department under AS 44.28.020(b); and (3) any other condition necessary to rehabilitate the prisoner. condition of special medical, administrative, discretionary, and mandatory parole a requirement that the prisoner submit to electronic monitoring. Electronic monitoring under this subsection must provide for monitoring of the prisoner's location and movements by Global Positioning System technology. The board shall require a prisoner serving a period of probation with electronic monitoring as provided under this subsection to pay all or a portion of the costs of the electronic monitoring, but only if the prisoner has sufficient financial resources to pay the costs or a portion of the costs. A prisoner subject to electronic monitoring under this subsection is not entitled to a credit for time served in a correctional facility while the defendant is on parole. In this subsection, "correctional facility" has the meaning given in
AS 33.30.901.

* Sec. 114. AS 33.16.180 is amended to read:

(A) a decision-making process to guide parole officers in determining the suitable response to positive and negative offender behavior that includes a list of sanctions for the most common types of negative behavior, including technical violations of conditions of parole, and a list of incentives for compliance with conditions and positive behavior that exceeds those conditions;

(B) policies and procedures that ensure

(i) a process for responding to negative behavior that includes a review of previous violations and sanctions;

(ii) that enhanced sanctions for certain negative conduct are approved by the commissioner or the commissioner's designee; and

(iii) that appropriate due process protections are included in the process, including notice of negative behavior, an opportunity to dispute the accusation and the sanction, and an opportunity to request a review of the accusation and the sanction;

(10) calculate and keep records of the parole reduction for a parolee who is eligible for the reduction under AS 33.16.210(d); and

(11) notify the board at least 30 days before the earliest date a parolee's parole will be discharged under AS 33.16.210(d).

* Sec. 115. AS 33.16.200 is amended to read:
Sec. 33.16.200. Custody of parolee. Except as provided in AS 33.16.210, the board retains custody of special medical, administrative, discretionary, and mandatory parolees until the expiration of the maximum term or terms of imprisonment to which the parolee is sentenced.

* Sec. 116. AS 33.16.210 is amended to read:

Sec. 33.16.210. Discharge of parolee. (a) The board may unconditionally discharge a parolee from the jurisdiction and custody of the board after the parolee has completed one year [TWO YEARS] of parole. A discretionary parolee with a residual period of probation may, after one year [TWO YEARS] of parole, be discharged by the board to immediately begin serving the residual period of probation.

(b) Notwithstanding (a) of this section, the board may unconditionally discharge a mandatory parolee before the parolee has completed one year [TWO YEARS] of parole if the parolee is serving a concurrent period of residual probation under AS 33.20.040(c), and the period of residual probation and the period of suspended imprisonment each equal or exceed the period of mandatory parole.

* Sec. 117. AS 33.16.210 is amended by adding new subsections to read:

(c) Notwithstanding (a) of this section, the board shall unconditionally discharge a parolee if the parolee

(1) has completed at least one year on parole;

(2) has completed all treatment programs required as a condition of parole; and

(3) is currently in compliance with all conditions of parole.

(d) The board shall grant a parole incentive reduction for good conduct by a person on parole of one day for each day of parole that a parolee successfully complies with all of the conditions of parole for one or more days immediately preceding the reduction computation.

* Sec. 118. AS 33.16 is amended by adding a new section to read:

Sec. 33.16.215. Sanctions for a technical violation of parole. (a) If a defendant is serving a period of parole for an offense, the board may find that the defendant has committed a technical violation of parole. If the board finds that a defendant has committed a technical violation of parole that does not include absconding, the board may impose a sentence of imprisonment of not more than

(1) three days for the first petition to revoke parole filed with the board;

(2) five days for the second petition to revoke parole filed with the board;

(3) 10 days for the third petition to revoke parole filed with the board;

and

(4) up to the remainder of the suspended portion of the sentence for a fourth or subsequent petition to revoke parole.

(b) If the board revokes a defendant's parole for absconding, the board may impose a period of imprisonment not to exceed 30 days.

(c) The limits on length of imprisonment the board may impose under this section if the board revokes a defendant's parole do not apply if the defendant is enrolled in the program established under AS 33.16.060(c).

(d) If the defendant is ordered to complete treatment under AS 12.55.100(a)(2)(E) and does not comply with the court's order, the court may order the defendant to show cause why the defendant should not be sentenced to imprisonment for noncompletion of treatment and may revoke the suspended sentence subject to the limits established in this section. In a contempt or probation revocation proceeding brought as a result of failure to complete treatment, it is an affirmative defense that the defendant was unable to afford the cost of treatment or secure a place in a free treatment program, despite having made continuing good faith efforts. If the court finds that the defendant was unable to complete treatment despite having made continuing good faith efforts, the defendant may not be imprisoned solely because of an inability to pay. If the court does not find that the noncompletion of treatment was attributable to the defendant's inability to pay, the court may order the defendant imprisoned subject to the limits established in this section.

(e) In this section,

(1) "absconding" means failing to report within five working days after release from custody under AS 33.20.030 or failing to report to a parole officer within 30 days after release from custody;
(2) "technical violation" means a violation of the conditions of parole that does not result from
(A) an arrest for a new criminal offense; or
(B) failing to complete sex offender treatment.

* Sec. 119. AS 33.16.220(b) is amended to read:

(b) If a parolee has been arrested for the commission of a new criminal offense or for failing to complete a sex offender treatment program, except [EXCEPT] as provided in (e) of this section, the board or its designee shall hold a preliminary hearing within 15 working days after the arrest and incarceration of a parolee for violation of a condition of parole [THE BOARD OR ITS DESIGNEE SHALL HOLD A PRELIMINARY HEARING]. At the preliminary hearing, the board or its designee shall determine if there is probable cause to believe that the parolee violated the conditions of parole and, when probable cause exists, whether the parolee should be released pending a final revocation hearing. A finding of probable cause at a preliminary hearing in a criminal case is conclusive proof of probable cause that a parole violation occurred.

* Sec. 120. AS 33.16.220(f) is amended to read:

(f) If a parolee has had a preliminary hearing under (b) of this section, the board shall hold a final revocation hearing not later than 120 days after a parolee's arrest, subject to restrictions arising under AS 33.36.110 and (g) of this section.

* Sec. 121. AS 33.16.220(i) is amended to read:

(i) If, after the final revocation hearing, the board finds that the parolee has violated a condition of parole imposed under AS 33.16.150(a), (b), or (f), or a law or ordinance, the board may revoke all or a portion of the parole subject to the limits set out in AS 33.16.215, or change any condition of parole. The board cannot extend the period of parole beyond the maximum sentence imposed by the sentencing court.

* Sec. 122. AS 33.16.220 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

(j) If a parolee has been arrested for a technical violation of conditions of parole, the board or its designee shall hold a final hearing within 15 working days.
* Sec. 123. AS 33.16.240(e) is amended to read:

(e) A parolee charged with a new crime or failure to comply with a sex offender treatment program [ARRESTED FOR VIOLATION OF PAROLE] is not entitled to bail.

* Sec. 124. AS 33.16.240 is amended by adding new subsections to read:

(h) A parolee arrested under this section for a technical violation shall be released without bail once the parolee has served the maximum number of days that could be served for a technical violation under AS 33.16.215. Nothing in this subsection prohibits the board or its designee from releasing a parolee sooner.

(i) The board or its designee may impose additional conditions necessary to ensure the parolee's appearance at a hearing held under AS 33.16.220(h).

* Sec. 125. AS 33.16.900 is amended by adding a new paragraph to read:

(14) "administrative sanctions and incentives" means responses by a parole officer to a parolee's compliance with or violation of the conditions of parole under AS 33.16.180.

* Sec. 126. AS 33.20.010(c) is amended to read:

(c) A prisoner may not be awarded a good time deduction under (a) of this section for any period spent in a treatment program or [,] in a private residence. A prisoner may be awarded a good time deduction under (a) of this section for any period spent [, OR] while under electronic monitoring.

The commissioner may not award the deduction under this subsection until the prisoner successfully completes the treatment requirements in the prisoner's case plan.

* Sec. 128. AS 33.30.011 is amended to read:

Sec. 33.30.011. Duties of commissioner. The commissioner shall
(1) establish, maintain, operate, and control correctional facilities suitable for the custody, care, and discipline of persons charged or convicted of offenses against the state or held under authority of state law; each correctional facility operated by the state shall be established, maintained, operated, and controlled in a manner that is consistent with AS 33.30.015;

(2) classify prisoners;

(3) for persons committed to the custody of the commissioner, establish programs, including furlough programs that are reasonably calculated to
