

What kind of help do you need?

Are you or someone you know:

- Looking for alternatives to living in a nursing home?
- Have a disability?
- Trying to find help caring for aging parents?
- Need assistance with bathing, shopping, paying bills or other chores?
- Worried that going for medical care will mean not coming back home?

We help you find the support and care you need so you can stay home healthier and longer. Our goal is to help you live as independently as possible, where you choose.

Alaska ADRC

Aging & Disability Resource Centers

- Help seniors, people living with disabilities, and caregivers access long-term supports in their communities, regardless of age or income.
- Conduct a person-centered intake to determine which programs you qualify for.

We help you find the support and care you need to live as independently as possible, where you choose.

How?

The ADRC specialist helps:

- Identify your long-term support needs
- Explore your options for meeting those needs
- Connect you with the resources you choose for yourself or your loved one
- Follow up to ensure your needs are met

We can connect you with:

- Medicaid or Medicare information
- In-home supports
- Help applying for services
- Home medical equipment
- Transportation
- Home remodeling for accessibility and safety
- Family caregiver respite
- Support groups
- And more...

ADRCs are your guide to making informed decisions
