ALASKA MENTAL HEALTH TRUST AUTHORITY ANNOUNCES $1M IN GRANT AWARDS

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (April 17, 2024) - The Alaska Mental Health Trust Authority (Trust) awarded $1,021,948 in grants to beneficiary-serving organizations in the third quarter of fiscal year 2024.

Trust grants are awarded year-round for capacity building, direct service, outreach, planning, capital, and workforce initiatives, as well as to support conferences, seminars, and training for organizations that serve Trust beneficiaries.

"The Trust has a unique ability to fund projects and initiatives that positively impact the continuum of behavioral health and disability care in Alaska, and we appreciate the many partners who are working tirelessly to improve access to care and quality of life for our beneficiaries," said Steve Williams, CEO of the Trust. "We are pleased that Trust can provide catalytic grant funding to improve access to behavioral health services, pilot new programs, grow and train our workforce, and build and renovate facilities to serve Trust beneficiaries."

Below is a complete list of Trust grants awarded last quarter. The Trust's quarterly grant report, posted online, provides more information about the grants.
