Trust Grant Proposal Development:
Opportunity Report

This report lists federal, state, or foundation grant funding opportunities pertinent to organizations that serve and support Trust beneficiaries

Back to Table of Contents

The following funding opportunities were selected for their potential to help organizations with funding options to support their work improving the lives of Alaska Mental Health Trust beneficiaries. Opportunities are organized by Trust focus area in the Table of Contents below. Within each focus area, those due soonest are listed first.

Sources for locating opportunities include Grants.gov, Alaska GEMS, State of Alaska Online Public Notices, the Alaska Funders Directory, and word of mouth. While important details can be found here for each opportunity, each entry has a blue link to the source of the most up-to-date information. This list should not be considered inclusive of all funding opportunities available to Trust-beneficiary serving organizations. For more information, CLICK HERE.

Grant Writing Training (Register Here)

PROVIDER	DATE	FREQUENCY	SESSION DESCRIPTION
Alaska Mental Health Trust Authority	10/27/26 + 10/28/26	Bi-annually	Recognizing that only a few grants will qualify for the technical assistance component, the Trust is now offering grant writing training for Trust beneficiary-serving organizations through our Proposal Development support. Past topics include where to find grant opportunities, how to review a grant opportunity to determine if it is the right fit for the organization, the go-no-go decision, applying for grants that require evidence-based practices, and organizational sustainability. This training is not about how to apply for Mental Health Trust grants, rather is intended to add to the skills of beneficiary-serving organizations to analyze and be better prepared to apply for all available grants that support the agency's mission. If you have questions about applying for Trust funds, talk with our Grants Team.
